HARC'S 2008 WINE AUCTION NETS A RECORD $90,482

The 13th Annual New York International Wine Auction (NYIWA), held November 15th at the Otesaga Hotel in Cooperstown, set yet another record netting a whopping $90,482 to assist the HARC in helping people with disabilities to achieve full potential and to live enriched lives.

HARC Executive Director Kevin Crosley commented, "Just before our auction, two auctions were cancelled due to the economy — one in San Francisco, one in Chicago. NYIWA is a testament to the generosity of the people of the Mohawk Valley. Not only did we raise a record amount of money, we also had a record number of people attend the event. The individuals who support our auction, from our sponsors, wineries, businesses, private donors and guests, realize NYIWA is just an enchanting event for a very worthwhile cause."

Crosley explained the proceeds would be used to provide services that are either underfunded or receive no funding at all at the state and federal levels. Two such programs at HARC are funded solely from proceeds from NYIWA. The Guardianship and Spirituality programs provide legal services and representation, and nondenominational spiritual activities, respectively, for people with disabilities.

NYIWA 2009 is slated for Saturday, November 21. HARC is working in concert with the Otesaga Hotel to plan a weekend of events including accommodations, a sponsor event, international wine tastings, wine
